

Go Wild in the Woods

A day in the life of a woodland

- Woodland crafts
- Tree climbing
- Pond discovery sessions
- Wildflower and butterfly walks
- Plus loads more...
- Please car share if possible as car parking is limited
- Cycling and canoe safaris
- Bat detecting
- Wildlife willow weaving
- BioBlitz species recording
- Bring a digital camera/camera phone
- Bring your own refreshments

Wednesday 2 June 2010
Firestone Copse
near Wootton Bridge
From dawn til dusk
Main activities 10.30am to 4.30pm

See www.wildonwight.co.uk for the latest event updates.

Go Wild in the Woods forms part of the Isle of Wight Biodiversity Partnership's International Year of Biodiversity 2010 (IYB) celebrations. The IW Biodiversity Partnership works together to conserve and enhance the Island's wildlife for all.

1332ENV